PEASE HOUSE

Columbus, Muscogee County, Georgia

Broad St. near 9th St.

Owner: Penn Mutual Co.Date of Erection: Between 1855 and 1860.Architect or Builder:Present Condition: Good.Number of Stories: Two.

Materials of Construction: Iron balcony on masonry piers supporting wood entablature. Curved double exterior stairs. Now converted into apartment house with four apartments.

Other Existing Records: Records P. Thornton Marye, District Officer, HABS 1934. Measured drawings by E.B. Richey on file with School of Architecture and Allied Arts, Alabama Polytechnic Institute, Auburn, Ala.

Additional Data: Deeds show that property, N $\frac{1}{2}$ of city lot 151 and 152 about $\frac{1}{2}$ acre, was bought from Charles W. Stewart in 1855 for \$1,000. Further records show that the transfer of the property in 1860 was for a consideration of \$6,100. This would indicate that a house had been built on this property between these dates.

In 1867 John W. Pease, Trustee for his wife, bought property with all improvements, for $7,000; and it remained in his possession and that of his descendants until recently.

The above information is based on incomplete records from deed books examined by H. B. Pease, Attorney, Murrah Building, Columbus, Georgia.
